

BOOKS AND AUTHORS

Author to talk about and sign his book on duckpin bowling

Brian J. Ewing, author of "The Golden Age of Duckpin Bowling: The Myths and Legends That Made the Game," will be at Lucky Strike Lanes today at 5 p.m. to sign his book and talk about his work.

"The Golden Age of Duckpin Bowling" teleports readers back in time to the early days of the game by following the careers of two famous duckpin bowlers, examining the sport's origin myth, and exploring technical advances that changed the sport.

Ewing will sign copies of his book at 5 p.m., give a talk at 5:30 p.m., and bowl with attendees at 6 p.m.

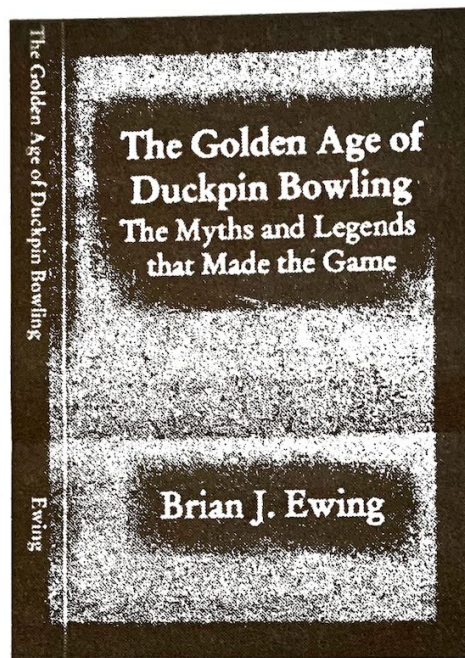

Reserve a copy of Ewing's book at:

DuckpinBook.com

Pick up a copy for a discounted price of $20 cash at the event.

Lucky Strike Lanes is at 185 Stafford Road in Mansfield.

The Mark Twain House and Museum will host Robert Lopez on Tuesday at 7 p.m. to discuss his book "Dispatches From Puerto Nowhere: An American Story of Assimilation and Erasure." The talk will be led by Sean Forbes.

Author Brian J. Ewing will be at Lucky Strike Lanes in Mansfield today to sign copies of his book "The Golden Age of Duckpin Bowling."

Lopez chronicles a family's efforts to assimilate within their new homeland and which led to the near complete erasure of their heritage, culture, and language within two generations.

Cost is $10,$5 for Mark Twain House members.

For more information, go to: marktwainhouse.org
The Walking Book Club at

Manchester Public Library will have its first meeting of the season on Thursday at 2 p.m. in the Mary Cheney Library Lobby, 586 Main St.

Attendees will take a 2-mile walk in the vicinity of the library, making stops for discussion.

The book club will walk rain or shine, but in case of extreme weather, call the library at 860-645-0821.

The book to be discussed will be "Leave the World Behind" by Rumaan Alam.

No registration is required for this free program. Copies of the book is available at both library buildings.

For more information, call 860-645-0821 or visit the library website at:

manchesterct.gov/library

The Check 'Em Out Book Club will meet in person at the Mary Cheney Library on April 10 at 6:30 p.m. to discuss "Our Missing Hearts" by Celeste Ng.

Copies of the book are available for check out at both library buildings. No registration is required for this free in-person program. For more information, call the library at 860-645-0821 or visit the website at:

manchesterct.gov/library